

The Beautiful San Santa COSTA

Columbus called the Cayman Islands "Las Tortugas".

Christopher Columbus was blown off course enroute to Hispanola in 1503. He "accidentally" discovered Little Cayman & Cayman Brac.

Red-Footed Booby
Frigate bird

The largest Red-Footed Booby colony in the Western Hemisphere is on Little Cayman.

LA ISLA DEL DIABLO

West Indian Whistling duck

Look for Frigate birds, West Indian Whistlers, Black-necked Stilts, Egrets, Herons & Ducks.

Wow! Over 50 dive sites here!

FLORIDA 480 MILES

Look for: Aloe vera, grape trees, tropical Ivy, & 2000 Iguanas!

To outer islands: 89 miles

Named for barrels of rum that washed ashore from a shipwreck

LA ISLA DE LA NOVIA DEL PRESIDENTE

feet deep!
The Silver Thatch Palm is the national tree.

West Bay

Boatswain Beach and Turtle Farm

Hell

Pampered Ponies

Fisherman's Reef

Yacht Club

Governor's Harbor

Butterfly Farm

Owen Roberts Int'l Airport

National Museum

60 kinds of birds visit here.

Banana City

Smith Cove

Atlantic Submarine

Almost 2 million people per year visit Grand Cayman by cruise ship... about 30 ships visit each week!

Are we there yet, dad?

North Side

Stingray City

"The world's best 12-Foot Dive"

Cayman Kai

Cayman Kayaks

Wild Banana Orchid National Flower

FAVELA

Savannah

Pirates Caves

Pedro St. James Castle

Pedro St. James is the oldest building in the Caymans. (1780)

IT'S 1 HOUR FROM GEORGETOWN TO EAST END.

East End

Old Man Village

Queen Elizabeth Botanical Gardens

East End Lighthouse

Gun Bay

White Sand Bay

Blow Holes (Photo Op!)

Drive on the LEFT side of the road in the Caymans!

Ten Sails Wreck

COSTA DEL PRESIDENTE

Fish for Blue marlin, Yellowfin tuna, Wahoo, dolphin, & barracuda.

The Cayman Islands have over 250 dive sites... with 100 foot visibility!

LEGEND

- 🌊 Best Snorkeling
- 🏄 Windsurfing
- 🏌 Golf Courses
- 🦅 Bird Watching
- 🪂 Parasailing

Illustrated by BRON
Symposium
-com

want to see more maps like this? www.funmapsusa.com

